

About the School

The School of Language, Literature and Culture Studies was established in 2000 with the aim of promoting language, literature and culture. It also aims to provide the students of this region opportunities to accept and face challenges in personal and public life. An attempt is made to enhance their literary sensibilities and insights through interdisciplinary modes and methods inherent in the very concept of school. For the period of last fourteen years, the School has remained the centre of various literary activities. Learned scholars and professors have delivered lectures in the School. From the beginning, the school has developed relations with other leading institutions in the field.

There has been a continuous exchange through the programmes like guest lectures, seminars, conferences, symposia, workshops, etc. Students of the school always have an access to the experts in various fields. The School has introduced Choice-based Credit System to make the teaching and assessment more effective, relevant and meaningful.
