

Brief Introduction

- Advantages:

A. At the Personal Level:

- All-round personal development of volunteers
- Volunteer becomes aware of social problems and acquires the skills of solving them
- Introduction to various social institutions
- Awareness towards self employment
- Volunteer is awarded with additional and certificate as incentives

B. At the Social Level:

- Social awakening
- Reaching out Government schemes to society
- Constructive works for society—houses, toilets, roads, canals, plantation
- Facilities of healthcare

- Awards:

A. National Level:

- Indira Gandhi National Award given by the Ministry of Youth affairs and Sports, Government of India, New Delhi
- Best University, Co-ordinator, Programme Officer and Volunteer
- Best Commonwealth Youth Award

B. State Level:

- Awards given by the Higher and Technical Education N.S.S. Cell of Government of Maharashtra, Mumbai
- Best University (One) and Best Co-ordinator(One)

- Best Programme Officer (Four) and the Best College N.S. Unit (Four)
- The best Volunteers (20)

C. University Level:

- Best Programme Officer (Four) One for each district
- Best Volunteer Girls (Four) one for each district
- Best Volunteer Boys (Four) one for each district

Department of NSS of SRTM University

- Co-ordinator: Shri N. V. Kamble
- Assitt. Supdt: Shri H. R. Dongre
- Peon: Shri Pathan Yusuf
- Department has been actively working for last 05 years
- NSS in 115 affiliated colleges with 193 units
- Open Unit has also been started from 1997-98 at Nanded to utilize the service of the senior citizens for betterment of the people in slum and adopted village