VI - Human Rights and Social Justice

(With effect from June 2020-21)

Credits : 03

Periods : 55

Marks : 75

Theory (ESE) 40 Marks + Internal (C.A.) 35 Marks = 75 Marks

Objectives :

The Human Rights and Social Justice Course, students will understand what are the human rights? and what is the meaning of social justice and its necessity? Why they course from and why we have them? Students also develop an understanding of challenges to human rights and social justice. At the end of the course students will understand how human rights can be used as a practice tool to support them.

Contents :

The course covers modern human rights institution and these work of state and non-state. Human rights and social justice are two different concepts. They are closely linked. The 1948 Universal Declaration of Human Rights includes economic, social and cultural rights such as the right to health security in the event of unemployment and education. In the course focus on Dr.B.R. Ambedkar Architecture of Indian Constitution and his visionary thoughts on human rights. Also examined Human Right for weaker section, statutory mechanism for enforcement of human rights and protection of human rights in India.

Outcomes :

Principles of human rights are fundamental rights. Justice is the concept of fairness. Social Justice and human rights have a shared goal human dignity, equally for all. The issues that make social justice difficult to achieve, such as poverty, exculsion and discrimination are in direct contradiction with human rights, which apply to all individuals indiscriminately. Human rights can help to fight indignity. In addition to promoting equality generally human rights protect against direct and indirect discrimination based on certain characteristics. Human rights provide legal framework that allows individuals to hold government to account and requires the state to create conditions necessary for the achievement for social justice.
