From the Desk of the Chairpersons Law Board of Studies

SRTM University, in pursuance of the directions of the Bar Council of India issued vide Letter dated 13th December 2025, all Law Colleges are required to integrate "Drafting of Legislation" and "Plain Language Drafting" in the curriculum for final year students. The BCI has emphasized the need to strengthen practical legal training to make students competent to meet contemporary legislative and professional demands. Accordingly, the Board of Studies in Law, SRTM University, has decided to integrate the above components in the final year practical subject "Drafting, Pleading and Conveyance".

The revised syllabus will include training in Drafting of Legislation and Plain Language Drafting, with the objective of enhancing clarity, precision, and accessibility in legal drafting. This addition is aimed at equipping students with practical skills required for legislative drafting and effective communication in law.

This decision has been taken collectively by all members of the Board of Studies in Law, and we extend our sincere gratitude for their valuable contribution in this regard.

Dr. Veena Patil, Chairman
Substantive Law Board

Dr. Poonam Nathani, Chairman
